

JOB TITLE:

Managing Architect

ROLE PURPOSE:

To lead all aspects of the AMS (Architecture Managed Service) within the boundaries of both budget and contract.

REPORTS TO:

Director of Delivery

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Being the main point of contact for the Client
- Managing the planning and quality of the various architecture deliveries
- Managing the architecture team in terms of project allocation, deliverable quality, milestone tracking, risks, issues and engagement
- Line management responsibility over engagement resources. For larger engagements, this may be through other Managing Architects. For smaller engagements this will be directly with Architects and Designers
- Resourcing for new projects (working with the Mosaic Island resourcing team)
- Governance of the service, reporting both internally to Mosaic Island management and externally to the client's management team
- Managing key stakeholders, including the portfolio owners, architecture and design team leads
- Being responsible for the Managed Service budget and profitability within defined boundaries
- Managing the Service Administrator who is responsible for onboarding, offboarding, finance and SLA reporting
- Identification of architecture service demand and other opportunities to extend Mosaic Island's relationship with the client (working with the client partner)
- Bringing the team together through knowledge sharing and social events
- Co-ordination of value add to the client within a predefined budget

In addition, as a valued member of the Mosaic Island team, you will be expected to contribute to wider business activities, in terms of knowledge capital, continuous improvement and business development in support of delivery to our clients.

EXPERIENCE & SKILLS:

Above all, you will be flexible, adaptable and pro-active, however the following may also describe you...

- Experience within Telecommunications IT and/or Network Architecture
- Solution Architecture and/or Enterprise Architecture practical experience
- Working within a large telecommunications operator environment
- 2:1 (or higher) degree in a technical discipline (STEM subject) or equivalent work experience
- Experience of planning and estimating
- Good understanding of IT Delivery lifecycles/methodologies
- Stakeholder Management
- Interviewing Techniques
- Commercial acumen with strong Excel and numerical skills
- Strong Presentation and PowerPoint skills
- Ex Consulting / Management Consulting firm or Telecommunications operator
- Able to adeptly translate business challenges to IT solutions
- Experience gained through a variety of clients and situations
- Leading technology teams to deliver their best performance

PERSONAL SPECIFICATION:

- Strong interpersonal skills - Able to engage at all levels of an organisation (from CxO to developer)
- Develops a strong level of trust and influence
- Exudes confidence and expertise
- Strong leader with experience of managing a team of IT professionals
- Customer and results focused
- Enthusiastic and displays a can-do attitude
- Excellent presentation skills (oral and written)
- Flexible and adaptable to work on different engagements across the business

LOCATION:

Home/office based and flexible to travel to client locations across the UK as well as our offices in Bristol and London.